I hereby confirm that I have received and read the latest version of the General Terms and Conditions, the event's House Rules and the HYROX Rulebook. I agree to the rules and regulations defined in these documents.

I am aware that the participation in the event is at my own risk; the specific dangers of the event are known to me. I have made sure that I am healthy and in a good physical condition. I therefore declare that there are no health concerns about my participation.

Furthermore, I am aware that the organizer will record the competition in the form of photographic, audio and video material and store and use this material in the media for both reporting and marketing purposes. I am aware that I may be recognized as an individual by my picture, my voice, my name, my start number as well as my finishing position being included on this audio/picture material and that the organizer and/or the official media partners and sponsors can display this material to an unspecified group of people for documentation, information and advertising purposes without restrictions in terms of time and space via all media forms and/or channels (print, TV, radio, internet, social media, event) and I agree to this procedure.

Should I appear in such audio/visual material about the event and be recognizable as a person (e.g. at the award ceremony), I waive any financial remuneration/compensation. I am aware that I have neither a claim to approve the media material nor the right to be named by name as a participant of the event.
